Megan is a Creative Mentor at the Mariposa Place, a center for adults with disabilities that focuses on art and music. A talented and accomplished artist herself, Megan assists clients who require aid in completing their own art work.

Working at Angio's Pizza, Mark takes pride in contributing to his family's successful business. Still, Mark wanted his own success. He's now a Partner at two Starbucks locations, in addition to working at the family business. Mark's gregarious personality and ability to work quickly in a high pace environment works well with Starbucks' busy, person centered setting.

Amber is a Returns Clerk at Hanna Andersson Distribution. Career Solutions matched Amber's attention to detail, strong work ethic, and need for a structured work environment with Quality Control's need for a detail oriented individual who must attain a specific quota every hour. Amber's quota is the same as her co-workers in the department.
